Math 175 Quiz, October 1 2014

Dr. Holmes

October 1, 2014

A tank in the shape of an inverted cone (point up) is 40 m across at the base and 60 feet tall. Its apex (the point at the top) is 3 m below the surface. It is full of water. How much work does it take to pump all the water to the surface?