Math 170: Calculus I
Spring 2016—Section 001

This section of Math 170 is one of several being conducted in a largely common way, with a largely common syllabus. You can find that syllabus and other course information at http://hausdorff.boisestate.edu/calculus/16spring170/index.shtml. This document gives details that are specifically for Section 001.

Time & Place: MWF, 7:30 to 8:45 a.m., Interactive Learning Center, Room 403 (ILC 403)

Text & WebAssign:

• Calculus: Early Transcendentals, 8th edition, by James Stewart
• Make sure your text purchase includes a Web Assign access code.
• The Section 001 class key for Web Assign self-enrollment is: boisestate 9225 1271.

Work Expectations:

• You are responsible for career-oriented and pre-professional work.
• Your work must be mathematically correct and complete (process, notation, and result).
• Your work must be neat, legible, and well organized.
Assignments and Groups:

• These items correspond to work often, work thoughtfully, work hard, and work with others.
• There are few, if any, more important factors for your success in this course.
• I will not formalize groups. For example, you may choose to work alone, to change groups, or to develop additional meetings outside of class.

Exams:

• Firm dates imply that you schedule other things around exams.
• Regular exams are set for 4:30 to 7:15 p.m. on Thursdays 2/11, 3/10, and 4/21.
• The final exam will occur during final exam week: Wednesday 5/4, 8:00 to 10:00 pm.
• All course material prior to an exam date is exam eligible.
• You will be notified about exam locations.

Electronics:

• Web Assign: Expect such assignments regularly. The self-enrollment class key is boiseestate 9225 1271.
• Class Websites: Certain materials will be posted at http://math.boisestate.edu/people/faculty/bcrow. The common overall site is at http://hausdorff.boisestate.edu/calculus/16spring170/index.shtml.
• Other Websites: You may find sites such as Khan Academy useful and may be asked to view certain video presentations.
• Blackboard?: No.
• Calculators: Use a calculator as you see fit unless directed otherwise.
• Other: You will be specifically barred from internet access during exams.

Finally: The last day to drop the course is Friday, March 18th.
